I'm a WordPress developer and designer with over 7 years' experience building fast, user-focused websites using Elementor, HTML/CSS/JS, and thoughtfully chosen themes and plugins. I manage hosting, domains, migrations, and basic server maintenance, and I focus on site speed and onpage SEO to make sites easier to use and easier to find. I also use AI-assisted workflows to speed up design and content iterations, and I enjoy collaborating with clients and teams to turn ideas into attractive, conversion-focused sites.

Letter of Recommendation for Jomari Santiago Reyes

To Whom It May Concern, November 5, 2026

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Jomari Santiago Reyes, who has been employed at Aether Media as a website developer since June 5, 2025.

Throughout his time with our company, Jomari has consistently demonstrated professionalism, dedication, and a strong commitment to delivering high-quality work.

Jomari is a talented and creative website developer with excellent design skills, a keen eye for detail, and a strong understanding of website structure, layout, and user experience. His ability to combine technical knowledge with creativity has made him a valuable member of our development team.

One of Jomari's greatest strengths is his proactive attitude. He takes initiative, approaches challenges with a problem-solving mindset, and consistently demonstrates a willingness to learn, improve, and take on new responsibilities.

He is also a reliable, hardworking, and detail-oriented professional who takes pride in his work. His attention to even the smallest details, combined with his creativity and dedication, allows him to deliver polished, visually appealing, and functional websites.

Beyond his professional abilities, Jomari is a respectful, positive, and cooperative team member who has been a pleasure to work with.

I confidently recommend Jomari for any future opportunity in website development, web design, or related fields. I genuinely believe he has tremendous potential and a bright professional future ahead of him.

Any organization would be fortunate to have him as part of its team.

Sincerely,

Shahaf S.
